|   | Esquire, President, and  |
|---|--|
| A Ridderk & Dennan  |  |
| Associates, Judges, of the Court of Common Pleas; no County: The Petition of Bonnace Bockle Beaver, humbly sheweth, That your Petitioner, hannes  | of the County of solid in the limited  |
| States since the year 1817  | and the Management   |
| at least three years, that he will support the Constitution of and that he doth absolutely renounce, and abjure, all a to any foreign prince, potentate, state or sovereignty   | ille giance and fidelitywhatever, particularly  |
| to the Ming of Muntusking in furnance to whom he was heretofore a subject, that he never hath title, nor hath been of any of the orders of unbility in the I he came, and is ready to declare on oath the truth of the to be admitted a Citizen of the United States, and of the Pennsylvania.  | Kingdem from whichese things, and prays  |
| Louis   | and Tolk   |
| BEAVER COUNTY, ss. At a a adjanua Court of Commo  | n Pleas, held for said   |
| County on the 29 day of President   | A.D. 1828 before   |
| Associates  | s, Judges of the same  |
| const same les al lace town   | And become the second second   |
| court—came learned Beekly cording to law, saith that what he hath set forth in the above and that he doth renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidility potentate or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the Kin  | phistion is the truth,   |
| cording to law, saith that what he hath set forth in the above and that he doth renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidility potentate or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the Kinand that he will support the Constitution of the United State   | to any foreign prince, ag of Mentinder   |
| cording to law, saith that what he hath set forth in the above and that he doth renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidility potentate or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the Kin and that he will support the Constitution of the United State  | to any foreign prince; ag of Neutimburg  |
| cording to law, saith that what he hath set forth in the above and that he doth renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidility potentate or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the Kin and that he will support the Constitution of the United State affirmed   | to any foreign prince; ag of Neutimburg  |
| cording to law, saith that what he hath set forth in the above and that he doth renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidility potentate or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the Kin and that he will support the Constitution of the United State Second in open Court.  30 July 1828  John Elanh Res  | in any foreign prince; as a Mentemburg   |
| cording to law, saith that what he hath set forth in the above and that he doth renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidility potentate or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the King and that he will support the Constitution of the United State Shown in open Court.  30 July 1828  BEAVER COUNTY, sa.  At an adjaurace Court of common the 29 day of July A.B. 1828  Came into court   | pleas, held at Beaver, for said county citizen of the United   |
| cording to law, saith that what he hath set forth in the above and that he doth renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidility potentate or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the Kin and that he will support the Constitution of the United States.  Shown in open Court.  30 July 1728  Learne Court of common the 29 day of July A.B. 1828  Came into court  States, and being sworn accoding to law, saith that he hath known and Rockly during the term of five year the jurisdiction of the said United States' as in the above per   | pleas, held at Beaver, for said county citizen of the United   |
| cording to law, saith that what he hath set forth in the above and that he doth renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidility potentate or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the King and that he will support the Constitution of the United State Court in open Court.  30 fuly 1828  At an adjaunace Court of common day of July A.B. 1828  Came into court  States, and being sworn accoding to law, saith that he hath known and Backly during the term of five years the jurisdiction of the said United States' as in the above persaid law and himself as a man of good moral character, and attached to the United States, and well disposed to the good order and here. | pleas, held at Beaver, for said county citizen of the United sown the above named a paidence and under tition set fourth by the cluster of the behaved be beaustitution of the |
| cording to law, saith that what he hath set forth in the above and that he doth renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidility potentate or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the Kin and that he will support the Constitution of the United State Storm in open Court.  30 July 1828  At an adjaunace Court of common the 29 day of July A.B. 1828  Came into court  States, and being sworn according to law, saith that he hath kr   | pleas, held at Beaver, for said county citizen of the United nown the above named a suidence and under stition set fourth by the last he hath behaved be priftess of the same. |